About

The voice of GONNE CHOI sounds as if it has existed for ages. When you listen to her music, it brings you to the journey to the place where you can't find on the map but in your heart.

Since 2010, Gonne Choi has released 3 EPs [36.5°C], [Good Morning], [REAL] and the first studio album [I was, I am, I will] (2014).

The unique color of her songs comes from the various musical experiences from her youth, such as learning Korean traditional instrument 'Ga-ya-geum' and the song 'Pansori', and being the vocalist of the college hard-core rock band. These experiences greatly affect Gonne's music with diversity, which allows crossover of the boundaries of genres, such as rock, folk, jazz, contemporary, classic, Korean traditional, and world music.

Gonne Choi has performed at 2014 and 2015 Glastonbury Festival, won Japan's Fuji TV 'Asia Versus' in 2013, had tour concerts for two months in Europe in 2012 and sang in the various music festivals in Korea.
